

1.- 8. sorularda, verilen tümceye anlamca en yakın ifadeyi bulunuz.

1. I was on the point of calling the stewardess when she arrived pushing the trolley of drinks.

- A) I needn't have called the stewardess to bring me some drinks.
- B) I must have called the stewardess because she appeared before me with drinks.
- C) The stewardess shouldn't have arrived earlier than she was supposed to.
- D) I didn't need to call the stewardess to get something to drink because she had already come.
- E) The stewardess appeared with a trolley of drinks after I had called her.

2. The problem of unemployment apparently gets more and more serious year by year.

- A) The unemployment problem varies in importance from year to year.
- B) There has obviously been an unemployment problem during recent years.
- C) With each passing year the problem of unemployment seems to intensify.
- D) The growing seriousness of the unemployment problem was not apparent for several years.
- E) Unemployment problem has not been apparent for several years.

3. Jonathan believes saving money for rainy days is absolutely necessary and so do I.

- A) Not only did I warn Jonathan about the approaching crisis but I also gave him some financial support.
- B) I personally believe that, just like Jonathan, both of us will have financial difficulties in near future.
- C) Both Jonathan and I think that one must put some money aside for the problems he may have in the future.
- D) Unlike Jonathan, I do believe that even now we can do something about the problems we may have when we get older.
- E) Nothing I said could persuade Jonathan to take some measures about the approaching problems.

4. Through her hard work and obedience at work, Judy has proven that she is a dutiful girl.

- A) Judy has shown that she is dutiful as she has worked hard and done what she has been told to do at work.
- B) Judy has been quite successful at work although she has hardly obeyed the rules.
- C) Judy is a dutiful girl so she will be obedient and do her best in order to become successful.
- D) Judy hasn't worked hard enough to be called a successful girl but people still think she is dutiful.
- E) Judy has done everything she has been told at work but people think she should be more obedient.

5. No one but my brother can have such a peculiar idea.

- A) My brother, like everybody else, can have such a peculiar idea.
- B) Everybody except my brother can have such a peculiar idea.
- C) My brother can't have such a peculiar idea but others can.
- D) My brother, unlike everybody, can't have such a peculiar idea.
- E) Only my brother can have such a peculiar idea, no one else.

6. The project turned out to be so costly that we decided not to go on with it.

- A) We didn't abandon the project though we lost a lot of money because of it.
- B) We gave up the project since it was starting to cost so much.
- C) The decision to cancel the project actually proved to be costly.
- D) Though the project was cancelled, we didn't lose any money because of it.
- E) So much money had been spent on the project that we couldn't afford to give it up.

7. Unlike George, Helen believes that being overweight is a serious health problem.

- A) Helen thinks that being overweight is not a serious problem.
- B) Neither George nor Helen thinks that being overweight is a real problem.
- C) Helen thinks that George considers it dangerous to be overweight.
- D) Helen doesn't like George because he is overweight.
- E) George does not think that being overweight is a serious problem though Helen does.

8. Despite the fact that both sides seemed to be motivated, they didn't have a sincere desire for an agreement.

- A) Neither of the sides really wanted to reach an agreement though they looked keen in appearance.
- B) It was possible to reach an agreement because both sides showed a great deal of interest.
- C) Although both sides were obviously eager, they did not work efficiently with each other.
- D) Both of the sides seemed to be motivated so they were able to reach an agreement.
- E) If one of the sides had wanted to reach an agreement, the situation would be different now.

9.-16. sorularda, parçada boş bırakılan yere uygun düşün cümleyi bulunuz.

9. Although Jim is the youngest student in the class, he has the highest grade-point average. Also, he won honours in football and track each year while he was in high school. ----. His sister, on the other hand, does not make good grades and has not adjusted well in school.

- A) For example, he gets along well with his teacher
- B) He won the last match too
- C) However, he has several weak points
- D) In fact, his sister is better than him but she is not as ambitious as her brother
- E) In addition, he has a good personality and gets along well with his classmates

10. Tomorrow's world, two hundred years from now, will be a fantastic place but only for people in high-technology countries. Life for the rich countries of the world will get richer and will be full of wonderful things. ----. On the other hand, there may be some shops for luxury goods so people who like shopping can still enjoy it.

- A) Every house will have a helicopter pad, perhaps on the roof or in the garden
- B) There will certainly be a view phone in every room of a house
- C) But I'm not sure whether people will be happier
- D) People will be able to order goods via telephone and factories will deliver them directly to the house
- E) A young couple will be able to choose the design of their house to suit the size of the family they plan to have

11. ----. Instead, you have to face the person directly and speak clearly. My father who is hard of hearing and wears a hearing aid can understand if I speak distinctly. As long as I pronounce clearly, I do not need to shout when I speak to him.

- A) Greg Adams has been blind since he was two years old
- B) They can design computers that read, write and speak out loudly
- C) Mr. Hood is admired because he is well-known for his work on behalf of homeless people
- D) When "lefties" use these items, they have to use their right hand to do the things that they would normally do with their left hand
- E) When you speak to someone who is hard of hearing, you do not have to shout

12. In recent years many countries of the world have been faced with the problem of how to make their workers more productive. ----, but do more varied jobs lead to greater productivity? There is evidence to suggest that while variety makes worker's life enjoyable, it doesn't actually make him work harder.

- A) Some experts claim the answer is to make jobs more varied
- B) The problem is that this kind of freedom can't be easily given
- C) Workers, on the other hand, are anxious about their future
- D) A similar argument may explain demands for shorter working hours
- E) And there is no doubt that this is true

13. Music was once a group experience. People listened to music at concert halls or in small social gatherings. ----. Walking along the street or sitting in their living rooms, they wear headphones to build a wall of music around them.

- A) For many people now, however, music is an individual experience
- B) Now more people are going out to concert halls
- C) Many people are choosing to wait for a film to appear on cable television
- D) Nowadays people are not very fond of listening to music
- E) They never wanted to be involved with the applause of the audience

14. There is a big difference between learning and memorising. ----. On the other hand, you memorize something to be used at a specific time; when that time has passed, you usually forget it. Therefore, a thorough understanding of your subject matter is a must in remembering what you have learned.

- A) The best memory insurance is through writing
- B) If you learn something, you completely understand it and it becomes part of you
- C) Memory files and organizes information
- D) The brain is capable of systematically filing information
- E) To understand something, you must memorize it

15. Last week there was a concert in the local theatre which was to raise money for the charity. ----. I think it was the organizer's fault because they didn't advertise enough.

- A) Not many people came and very little money was raised
- B) Many people came to see the performance, but the leading singer was awful
- C) It was the most excellent concert I had ever seen
- D) The performers were very well-known so people filled our local theatre
- E) Many people came but the concert was unbearable

16. Rock and soil samples brought back from the Moon have taught scientists much about the composition of the moon. ----. They were probably cut off from larger rocks when meteors impacted with the surface of the moon.

- A) Moon soil contains small bits of rock and glass
- B) They found no trace of animal or plant life in the moon soil
- C) Gases such as hydrogen and helium were found in the soil
- D) A kind of rock among them is an indication of extremely high temperature
- E) The soil of the moon has no similarities with the soil of the earth

17.- 24. sorularda, verilen duruma uygun dūŖen cūmleyi bulunuz.

17. After you have waited more than half an hour in a queue in the bank, the officer in charge tells you that the on-line system has been out of order for some time. You get angry with her for not letting you know this beforehand and say furiously:

- A) It is alright. I can pop in in the afternoon.
- B) There must have been something wrong with the computers, I believe.
- C) You don't have to say you're sorry. These things happen.
- D) You'd better talk to the manager. He may help you with it.
- E) You should have warned me. All you're doing is to sit there and do nothing useful.

18. You are watching TV with an English family. They start laughing at a joke in the programme which you haven't understood and you inquisitively say:

- A) I think it is ill-mannered to laugh at a foreigner.
- B) I can't see anything funny in this serious matter.
- C) I think I've missed the joke. Can you tell me what it is?
- D) This is one of the best jokes I've ever heard.
- E) I can't understand people who make disturbing jokes.

19. While on holiday abroad you become ill and this has prevented you from returning to work on time. When you return, you explain the situation to your employer and you say:

- A) While I was on holiday, I had an accident but it was not serious.
- B) One of my suitcases was lost at the airport and I had to stay there until it was found.
- C) On my way here, I felt terrible but I managed to come on time.
- D) I was taken ill while on holiday and I stayed there more than I had thought.
- E) I had to stay a few days more as I was really tired.

20. A friend offers you a place in his car on a long trip he intends to take, providing that you are willing to share the expenses. You don't want to accept the offer and say to him:

- A) I guess it will be a trip that we will never forget.
- B) Thanks, but I'm too busy to leave the city nowadays.
- C) It sounds good but why should I share the expenses?
- D) Let's go as soon as possible. Is tomorrow morning okay?
- E) I don't think you are a competent driver, are you?

21. You have to explain your job to a person who is coming to take your place as you have been promoted. You give him some clues and say:

- A) What you should have done was to take good care of the control panel.
- B) Well, the most important thing you have to remember is to keep an eye on this level meter.
- C) Would you mind explaining me how to switch off all the engines before leaving the factory?
- D) Why on earth have you decided to take over the job from me?
- E) Once you've started you'll see how easy the things are to learn. Good luck!

22. Your boss wants you to go and meet a customer called Mr. Grant at the Intercontinental Hotel, but because you have never seen this man before, you ask your boss what he is like:

- A) Well, isn't he the one we met at the airport last week?
- B) It is nearly two o'clock now, so I should hurry to catch the bus to the hotel.
- C) All right then, but what time do I have to be at the hotel?
- D) Do you know when exactly he arrives at the hotel?
- E) Of course, sir. But could you give me his description so that I won't fail to recognize him?

23. Some people have just come to visit you unexpectedly while your house is in a mess. You feel embarrassed and apologize for the situation:

- A) Why don't you go and come back some time later?
- B) What a surprise! I have been expecting your visit for ages.
- C) You know, you're responsible for this mess not me!
- D) I am sorry for the mess my flat is in but you know I wasn't expecting anybody.
- E) Why should I be prepared to welcome you? It is not my duty after all.

24. Your roommate is going to London tonight for a few days to attend a seminar. But you don't want to be alone during his absence. So you ask another friend to keep you company and you say:

- A) I have two tickets for a concert this evening. Would you like to come?
- B) My roommate won't be here for a few days. I should take advantage of his absence.
- C) Will you come and stay with me for a few days?
- D) I'm fed up with it. Can I stay with you from now on?
- E) Let's go to London to follow him. I don't trust him.

25.-32. sorularda, verilen karşılıklı konuşmanın boş bırakılan yerinde söylenmiş olabilecek sözü bulunuz.

25. Mike : You seem to be a little worried. Is anything wrong?

Tim : I have got to find a flat somewhere. They are going to pull down the building where I live.

Mike : ----

Tim : Yes, it is. Especially when I have only one week to do it.

- A) Are you going to move in a week?
- B) I think you have got a problem there.
- C) Well, is that such a big problem?
- D) Haven't you found an apartment yet?
- E) Have you considered putting an ad in a paper?

26. Jane : When did you last travel by air?

Tim : 2 years ago. ----

Jane : Just to find out if you know how much it costs now.

Tim : I'm afraid I can't help you with that.

- A) Is there anything else you want to ask?
- B) Do you know how much it costs?
- C) Why have you asked that?
- D) Isn't it better to go by train?
- E) What about you? Have you ever travelled on a plane?

27. Andy : ----

Susie : It's really nice. I haven't got to know all of my neighbours yet but I've met a few.

Andy : I'm sure you'll soon get used to the place and the people.

Susie : Yes, it seems so.

A) Hello Susie! It's been ages since we met each other. How are you?

B) Have you got a family here to visit you, Susie?

C) Hi, Susie. Have you met our new neighbour in the shopping-centre today?

D) How are you settling into your new flat Susie?

E) I wonder if you'll enjoy our visit to Edinburgh next month.

28. James : How many application forms did you receive today?

Sandra: Six. ----

James : So, we must go on the paper advertisements.

Sandra: Yes, it seems so.

A) I am tired of evaluating these applications.

B) And I think you must see two of them.

C) She heard about the vacancy on the radio.

D) But none of them is qualified for the job.

E) All of them are suitable for me.

29. Alex : Writing this paper is a difficult assignment.

Bill : ----

Alex : No, it is for tomorrow and actually the subject is worth writing about.

Bill : Stop complaining then.

A) Must you do it all by yourself?

B) Why don't you do it quickly?

C) When are you supposed to give it?

D) Does your teacher always assign something?

E) Can't you do it later?

30. Ann : Sorry but I didn't quite catch that.

Tom : I said, "Can I give you a lift?"

Ann : ----

Tom : No, it's on my way home.

A) Do you really want this?

B) I didn't know you were free.

C) Isn't it out of your way?

D) You don't really want to give a lift, do you?

E) Can you lend me your car?

31. Matt : We've been working hard for a while now. How about a coffee break in the cafeteria?

Anne : Sounds good to me. Just let me get my coffee cup.

Matt : ----

Anne : Because the cafeteria has only those plastic cups.

A) Both of you ought to show more interest in environmental issues.

B) Our not using plastic foam products helps, doesn't it?

C) Do you always keep your books in your locker?

D) You take your own cup down to the cafeteria? Why?

E) Let's not go to the cafeteria at this time of the day. It can be very crowded.

32. Tom : ----

Bob : Congratulations! I am sure you will lead it with success.

Tom : I hope so. I have never tried such a thing before.

Bob : Don't panic! You can consult me whenever you need help.

A) At last I'll get the project that I have been waiting for.

B) I will be very happy if you can help me with the rent.

C) I think I won't be promoted until I get my certificate.

D) I have one more examination tomorrow.

E) I am sorry to trouble you, but I am afraid I have a problem.

33.- 40. sorularda, verilen parçaya anlamca uygun olmayan ifadeyi bulunuz.

33. (I) Before you go inside the restaurant, make sure you spend some time reading the menu outside quite carefully. (II) Try to notice what the prices include and what they don't include. (III) In particular, look for any mention of cover charges, service charge and V.A.T. (IV) When you have been given the bill and are ready to pay, you should thank the staff. (V) You might be in for a nasty shock when the bill comes if you haven't budgeted for these "extras" and not all the menus you are shown at the table mention these items.

A) I B) II C) III D) IV E) V

34. (I) The elephant population has fallen by about 50 percent during the last ten years. (II) Ivory is mostly used to make bracelets, handles for knives and forks and ornament. (III) According to a recent report, one elephant is killed every ten minutes. (IV) If ivory hunting continues at this rate there will be no elephants left in 25 years time. (V) Consequently, they will no surprisingly be something of the past.

A) I B) II C) III D) IV E) V

35. (I) In early times, measurements were made by comparing things with parts of the body. (II) Early units of measurement included the distance from the elbow to the fingers, the width of the hand and the width of the fingers. (III) During the French Revolution, scientists looked for a standard of measurement which did not change. (IV) Some of these human measurements are still used. (V) For example, the inch is based on the length of half the thumb.

A) I B) II C) III D) IV E) V

36. (I) Television is the most influential of all the media. (II) A single TV programme has more impact than radio and the printed newspaper or magazines. (III) Any other branch of industry is on the threshold of bankruptcy. (IV) For this reason TV producers and programme makers have a responsibility to the general public to ensure the highest standards. (V) This applies to all aspects of television but perhaps especially to those programmes which are aimed at children and young people.

A) I B) II C) III D) IV E) V

37. (I) Many hundreds of years ago the Chinese invented a special form of fighting called "kung fu". (II) It is very different from Western boxing. (III) The Western boxer only uses his fists to fight. (IV) Bruce Lee was the film star who made kung fu famous. (V) The Chinese boxer uses arms, elbows, fists, feet, teeth and nails.

A) I B) II C) III D) IV E) V

38. (I) It was during his search for a new route to India that Columbus reached America. (II) They will arrive by riverboat at Missouri River towns in America in the early spring. (III) Although he made his discovery in 1492, it took a little over 100 years for people to finally settle in the New World. (IV) Some settlers hoped to escape from the problems of the Old World by emigrating to the New. (V) Reports that excellent crops could be produced in Virginia induced many people to make the long journey.

A) I B) II C) III D) IV E) V

39. (I) The three Bronte sisters were all famous writers. (II) The eldest sister, Charlotte, is famous for Jane Eyre. (III) Their brother, Patrick Branwell, was an artist and a railway clerk. (IV) Emily for Wuthering Heights. (V) Anne for The Tenant of Wildfell Hall.

A) I B) II C) III D) IV E) V

40. (I) If you smoke, your chances of getting heart disease are at least double those of a non-smoker. (II) And the more you smoke, the greater the risk is. (III) Regular exercise such as running, walking can help to protect your heart. (IV) If that isn't enough to make you stop, smoking also causes other serious diseases. (V) It is also expensive and makes your clothes and breath smell.

A) I B) II C) III D) IV E) V