

QR OPTİK

QUESTION TYPES SURVEY

ANLAMCA EN YAKIN CÜMLE 1

dilko élite

1. - 10. sorularda verilen cümleye anlamca en yakın olan cümleyi bulunuz.

1. I wish my parents had told me the truth about their plans.

- A) I should have told my parents a long time ago that I would like to know about their plans.
- B) Having been unable to tell me the truth about their plans, my parents felt disturbed.
- C) I would rather my parents had told me the truth about their plans.
- D) While I was talking to my parents about their plans, I realized they were lying to me.
- E) Any honest parent should be brave enough to tell their children the truth about everything.

2. One of the outstanding questions in astrophysics is whether all variants of naturally occurring elements have been present from the beginning of the universe.

- A) There are many important questions in astrophysics and one of them is if all different kinds of elements existing naturally will have been there forever from now on.
- B) In astrophysics, it is an essential question among many others if all different forms of elements which are inherently found in nature have existed from the beginning of the universe.
- C) One of the important questions in astrophysics world is the reason why every naturally occurring element has existed since the beginning of the humanity.
- D) In astrophysics, it is always asked if any of these naturally occurred elements have existed from the beginning with a significant human intervention or not.
- E) Even if all different naturally occurring elements are present from the beginning of time, astrophysics world has always been concerned about how they existed for so long.

3. To the audience's amazement, the magician was able to get out of the locked safe.

- A) In order to amaze the audience, the magician performed an astonishing show in a safe.
- B) Even though the magician broke out of the safe in a few seconds, the audience was not at all surprised.
- C) The magician wanted to impress the audience, so he repeated his trick in a locked safe.
- D) Even getting out of a locked safe was not enough to make an impression on the audience.
- E) The audience was stunned when the magician succeeded in getting out of the safe.

4. The moment the teacher entered the classroom, she realized there was something wrong with the students.

- A) If only the teacher had been in class, she would have realized there was something wrong with the students.
- B) The teacher's being in class when the students arrived prevented them from doing something wrong.
- C) No sooner had the teacher entered the classroom than she realized there was something wrong with the students.
- D) The teacher told the students that she didn't expect to experience anything wrong at that moment.
- E) By telling the students that there was nothing wrong, the teacher managed to calm the students down.

www.dilkoyayincilik.com.tr

5. A total solar eclipse can occur only when the moon is in its new phase.

- A) Even if the moon is in its new phase, it's not possible to observe a total solar eclipse.
- B) It's not possible for a total solar eclipse to occur unless the moon is in its new phase.
- C) If you want to observe a total solar eclipse, you had better avoid the moon's new phase.
- D) One mystery about the moon's new phase is its ability to prevent a total solar eclipse.
- E) Once the moon reached its new phase, we were able to see the total solar eclipse.

6. The effects of drinking alcohol and driving while under its influence are well documented.

- A) The documents produced under the influence of alcohol are known to be unreliable.
- B) As long as you do not exaggerate, there is nothing wrong with drunk driving.
- C) There is a lot of reliable data on how alcohol affects driving performance.
- D) The claim that alcohol weakens one's driving capability has finally been documented.
- E) Despite the documents we have, we can't convince people not to drive after drinking alcohol.

7. Whether you're sitting at home or driving a car, you're bathing in a sea of electromagnetic waves.

- A) If you want to be able to keep away from the harmful effects of electromagnetic waves, you must limit the amount of time you spend in your car.
- B) Your being at home or in your car doesn't change the fact that you are exposed to a lot of electromagnetic waves at all times.
- C) Contrary to what many people think, the amount of electromagnetic waves in your home is not less than that in your car.
- D) By reducing the amount of time you spend outside your home, you can reduce the likelihood of being exposed to harmful electromagnetic waves.
- E) Even when having a bath in the bathroom of your cosy apartment, you can't avoid being affected by the electromagnetic waves all around.

8. Short school years with long vacations are not the norm in Europe, Asia, or South America.

- A) Students studying in Europe, Asia, or South America are luckier because they have longer holidays.
- B) Being a student in Europe, Asia, or South America means forgetting long school years.
- C) In Europe, Asia, and South America, usually school years are long and holidays are short.
- D) According to many schools in Europe, Asia, and South America, long school holidays improve the quality of education.
- E) Schools in Europe, Asia, and South America prefer to have short holidays because of budgetary concerns.

9. The Philippines were the first Asian colony to become independent following World War II.

- A) After the World War II, the Philippines gained its independence before all other Asian colonies.
- B) Although World War II ended, no country other than the Philippines were willing to gain independence.
- C) The only good result of World War II was the Philippines' ending its dependence on other Asian colonies.
- D) At the end of World War II, none of the colonies in Asia was as strong as the Philippines.
- E) As soon as World War was officially ended, the Philippines declared that they had no connection with other Asian colonies.

10. Technology used in spacecraft may soon be improving the lives of millions of sick people on Earth.

- A) Sooner or later, millions of people living on Earth will be able to have access to advanced space technology.
- B) Owing to the incredible progress in space technology, the world's sick people will be healed completely.
- C) Not until space technology becomes available to the general public, will millions of diseased people feel healthy.
- D) Space technology will possibly enable millions of ailing people in the world to enjoy better lives soon.
- E) If unhealthy people were brave enough to take part in medical experiments, they would benefit more from the merits of space technology.